Eligibility:

1. All members and non-members of District Associations.
2. Participants using their own arms should be in possession of Valid Arms Licence.
3. Juniors can take part in Shotgun Events under the supervision of Licence holders.
4. Junior Shooters can take part both in Senior and Junior events.
5. All Matches will be conducted as per the ISSF Rule

Participants of 1st Medchal District Open Shotgun Shooting Competitions in (ISSF) events, 2019 will be considered for Team Selection of 63rd National Shooting Championship Competitions in Shotgun Events 2019:

Shotgun Team Selection Policy:

Team selection for National Shooting Championship:

1. Two trials of 125 birds will be conducted before the Nationals.
2. Two best scorers to be considered out of the three for selecting a Team (Two trial scores and One South Zone score). Similar rule is applicable for Mixed Event Men and Women.
3. Any National Core Team member(s) forming the top Nine (Senior National Team) will automatically be eligible for inclusion as a member of the team for the National Shooting Competitions from the State. Their participation in any of the State or South Zone Shooting competitions or trials is not mandatory.
4. Similarly, for the Junior Team for the National Shooting Championship, the two best scores will be considered on their two trial scores together with the South Zone Shooting Championship score.
5. Any Jr. National Core Team member(s) forming the top Nine will automatically be eligible to be a member of the Senior/Junior Team for the National Shooting Competitions from the State. However, the shooters (Core Team Shooter) last recognized score will be taken into consideration to assess his form to make the team. For the purpose of clarity, the average score of the other two members of the team will be taken into consideration and the international shooter last recognized score should be equal or more than the average of the other two shooter. Again the last recognized score must be in the time frame of 3 months prior to the Nationals or any score before the National competitions of the current year . Their participation in any of the State or South Zone Shooting competitions or trials is desirable but not mandatory.
